

Deputy Director of Human Resources City of Tucson, Arizona

The City of Tucson is seeking a dynamic and progressive leader to serve as the Deputy Director of Human Resources. This challenging position requires an ethical, courageous, collaborative and focused HR professional who is dedicated to team and a diverse, high performing workforce.

Operating within a civil service system, the leadership of the Human Resources Team is critical in attracting, retaining and developing our active workforce of over 4,500 employees. The Team shares the City's commitment to process improvement and providing high quality, cost effective service to our community.

COMMUNITY PROFILE

Tucson is located in the Sonoran Desert surrounded by five gorgeous mountain ranges with dedicated natural and recreational areas including the Coronado National Forest, Catalina State Park, Ironwood Forest National Monument, and Saguaro National Park.

The community is centered on a vibrant, resurgent Downtown with an abundance of museums, performance venues, restaurants, and high-energy nightlife. Our dynamic Downtown is linked to The University of Arizona and University Medical Center by a sleek new Modern Streetcar system.

Enjoying an ideal climate, Tucsonans experience over 300 days of sunshine each year and an average temperature of 82 degrees.

Diverse, quality recreation opportunities include:

- 27,000 acres of park lands with easily accessible hiking and mountain-biking trails, camping, rock climbing, and even snow skiing

- Golf is available year-round on over 40 public and private golf courses
- Bicycle lanes and paths abound
- Plentiful community events and festivals fill the calendar
- Our region is ranked one of the five best areas in the United States for bird watching

Tourism contributes almost $2 billion annually to the local economy, headlined by two international annual events:

- Annual Gem and Mineral Show adding $120 million to the economy
- Tour de Tucson drawing 10,000 bicyclist and $18 million to the economy

Tucson facts:

- With a population of over 520,000, Tucson is the 32nd largest city in the country
- Nicknamed the Old Pueblo, Tucson is Arizona's second largest and oldest city blending Indian, Spanish, Mexican, and Anglo heritages, retaining the charms of its frontier roots
- Beautiful, colorful sunsets reflect the rich cultural community heritage and a progressive future
- One of the megatrend cities of the 21st century with its emerging presence as a center for optics, astronomy, and health services
- Key logistical international trade corridor
- Bicycle Magazine's 18th of Top 50 bike friendly cities
- With a regional population approaching one million, Tucson's larger employers include Arizona's first university, The University of Arizona, founded in 1885, with about 50,000 students; Raytheon Missile Systems; and Davis-Monthan Air Force Base. ## CITY OF TUCSON ORGANIZATION

The City of Tucson is a charter city with a Council-Manager form of government. The legislative body is comprised of the Mayor and six Council Members who are all elected at-large. The legislative body establishes the policies for the City. The City Manager, who is selected by the Mayor and Council, functions as the Chief Executive Officer, carrying out policies and managing the municipal organization of over 4,500 staff, with a Fiscal Year 2016 budget of $1.3 billion. ## HUMAN RESOURCES DEPARTMENT

The Human Resources Team of 30 employees is responsible for employee recruiting and talent management, classification and compensation, labor negotiations, employee records, insurance benefits, medical leave management, training and development, and equal opportunity programs. The department is expected to serve the needs of the Executive Leadership Team while remaining true to the Civil Service system. The department provides the entire organization ready advice and counsel on all aspects of human resources and is expected to serve as a proactive business partner through sound business practice and leadership. The department is responsible for labor relations and negotiations with four unions (meet and confer) and two associations (meet and discuss).

Immediate challenges include the following:

- The City of Tucson has significantly reduced its workforce over the last several years as a result of fiscal constraints. Reductions were achieved primarily through attrition with limited layoffs, resulting in less than optimum department organizational structures. As City departments refine their processes and structures to sustain service delivery, the Human Resources Team must assist with reclassifications, job description changes, and accelerated personnel actions.
- The City recently implemented a new Human Resources Management system; however, its full functionality has yet to be realized. Maximizing the capability of this system will allow us to significantly improve personnel-related processes and employee services.
- The City has committed to implement Kronos as a citywide time-keeping solution.
